

NU SCHOOL OF LAW ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

Lillian K. and Maurice G. Alperin Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1986 by Maurice G. Alperin, a member of the class of 1927. Income from this fund is awarded annually to students with demonstrated academic achievement and financial need.

Diana J. Auger Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1992 by Diana J. Auger, a member of the class of 1939. Ms. Auger is a lifetime trustee emerita, a member of the Northeastern University Corporation and a director of The National Council. She was awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree in 1991. The scholarship is awarded annually to one or more law students based on financial need.

Irving A. and Charlotte S. Backman Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1996 by Irving A. Backman, a graduate of the class of 1951, and his wife, Charlotte S. Backman, in memory of their daughter, Joan A. Backman. The scholarship is awarded annually to a student demonstrating financial need.

Charles D. Brown Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1993 by Mrs. Gertrude S. Brown in memory of Charles D. Brown, a 1928 graduate of the School of Law. Mr. Brown was a director of The National Council and a distinguished attorney in the Boston legal community. The scholarship is awarded annually to one or more students based on academic achievement and financial need.

Richard W. Burnes Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1957 under the will of Mae P. Burnes in memory of Richard W. Burnes, a graduate of the School of Law class of 1911. The scholarship is awarded annually to one or more students based on financial need.

Thomas E. Cargill Jr. Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1972 by Thomas E. Cargill Jr., a 1948 graduate of the School of Law. Mr. Cargill is a lifetime trustee emeritus, a member of the Northeastern University Corporation and a director of The National Council. He was awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree in 1988. The scholarship is awarded annually to one or more students based on financial need.

Cetrulo Family Scholarship

This Scholarship was established in 2000 by Lawrence G. Cetrulo, a member of the class of 1975 and a member of the Northeastern university Corporation. This fund provides financial assistance to one or more students based on financial need and academic promise, with a preference for graduates of Harvard College.

Connor Foundation Law School Scholarship

The Connor Foundation, Inc., a charitable corporation, was founded pursuant to the will of Howard C. Connor, a member of the class of 1925. The Connor Foundation Law School Scholarship was established by the directors of the foundation to aid financially needy students.

Ethleen Heuser Diver Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1995 with the proceeds of a gift annuity donated by Ethleen Heuser Diver, class of 1930. The scholarship is awarded annually to one or more students, preferably female, based on financial need.

Laurie A. Ebacher Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1986 by Laurie A. Ebacher, class of 1939. A former clerk of the Amesbury District Court, Mr. Ebacher served on the state Banking Commission until his retirement. His public service in Amesbury, Massachusetts, includes nine years on the School Committee and serving as a Public Library trustee. Mr. Ebacher served 10 years as a Rockingham County, New Hampshire, planning commissioner, and is a practicing attorney in Amesbury. The scholarship is awarded annually to one or more students based on financial need.

John T. Gaffney Sr. Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1987 by the family and friends of John T. Gaffney Sr., class of 1949, L.L.M., 1954. Mr. Gaffney joined the Suffolk County District Attorney's Office in 1949, serving as an assistant district attorney and as first assistant district attorney under Garrett Byrne. Awards from this fund are made annually to second- or third-year students with a specific interest in criminal law.

Nathan and Adele Hillman Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1972 by Nathan Hillman, a graduate of the School of Law, class of 1942, and his wife, Adele. The scholarship is given solely to students in the School of Law who are either orphans or from broken homes and has demonstrated financial need.

Eli and Martha Jacobson Memorial Scholarship

In 1975 this memorial scholarship fund was established in the name of Eli Jacobson by his friends and relatives. Mr. Jacobson was an alumnus of the school of Law, class of 1933, and a member of the Northeastern University Corporation and Board of Trustees. During his lifetime, he gave support to many philanthropic organizations. In 1980, in commemoration of the 75th birthday of Eli's wife, Martha Jacobson, friends and relatives paid tribute to her through gifts to the fund originally established in Eli's name. The spirit and generosity exhibited by Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson are now perpetuated, and both are recognized through this scholarship. Awards are made annually to students based on financial need, soundness of character and academic ability.

The Jeffs Scholarship

The Jeffs Scholarship was established in 1997 by two guys named Jeff (Jeffrey B. Lowenfels and Jeffrey M. Feldman, members of the class of 1975) who, after completing law school, moved to Alaska, but always missed the white-gray bricks of Huntington Avenue. The scholarship is awarded annually to a student named Jeff or, at the discretion of the dean, to a third-year student who has made the law school a more interesting, stimulating and entertaining environment in which to be trained in the law.

Joseph and Corinne Krinsky Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1972 by Joseph Krinsky, a graduate of the School of Law, class of 1941. The scholarship is awarded annually to a student based on financial need.

William D. Lane Scholarship

This scholarship was established by the family and friends of William D. Lane, cum laude graduate of the class of 1938. The scholarship is awarded to one or more students in the School of Law based on financial need.

Richard G. and Clare E. Lesser Scholarship Fund

Established in 1996 by Clare E. Lesser, class of 1984, and her husband, Richard G. Lesser, the scholarship is preferably awarded to a female student who demonstrates academic promise, financial need and a special interest in public service law.

Gabriel A. Namen Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1988 in memory of Gabriel A. Namen, an alumnus of the law school's class of 1936. The scholarship is awarded to a first-year student or students from Worcester County based on financial need.

Alumni/ae Association Scholarship

To commemorate the founding of Northeastern University School of Law in 1898, the School of Law Alumni/ae Association established this scholarship in 1974. It is preferably awarded to second-year students based upon academic or co-op performance and demonstrated financial need.

Leonora Keeney Pemberton Memorial Scholarship

A member of the class of 1980, Nora Pemberton was a conscientious, dedicated student who entered the study of law based on a mature understanding of herself, her abilities and her desire to help those in need. She was particularly interested in women's issues, poverty law and family law. Income from the fund is awarded annually to a promising student or students sharing the interests and goals of Nora Pemberton.

Irving Perlmutter Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1972 by Irving Perlmutter, a graduate of the School of Law, class of 1938. The scholarship is awarded annually to one or more students based on financial need.

R. Robert Popeo Scholarship

This fund was established by R. Robert Popeo, a 1961 graduate of Northeastern University's College of Liberal Arts. Mr. Popeo, a member of the Northeastern University Corporation and Board of Overseers, also serves as director of The National Council. The scholarship is awarded to students in the School of Law solely on the basis of financial need.

John T. Powell Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1974 by the law firm of Hale and Dorr in memory of John T. Powell, a partner in the firm and a graduate of the School of Law, class of 1928. This scholarship is awarded to one or more deserving students based on academic ability and soundness of character.

Peter W. Princi Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1985 by the children, family and friends of Peter W. Princi, class of 1938. Mr. Princi served as magistrate for the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts from 1971 until 1981. He was a member of the Northeastern University Corporation and was the recipient of an honorary doctor of laws degree from Northeastern University. Awards are made annually to a student or students based on financial need.

David and Dorothy Ramler Senior Scholarship

This scholarship was established by David and Dorothy Ramler. Mr. Ramler was a member of the class of 1930. Income is awarded annually to third-year students in the School of Law based on financial need.

Ralph B. Rogers Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1972 by Ralph B. Rogers, a graduate of the School of Law, class of 1931, and a recipient of an honorary doctor of laws degree in 1967. He was a member of the Northeastern University Corporation and a director of The National Council. The scholarship is awarded annually to one or more law students based on financial need.

Rubin Family Scholarship

The Rubin Family Scholarship was established by three graduates of the School of Law: the late Deborah A. Rubin, class of 1978; her parents, the late Mac L. Rubin, class of 1936; and Doris Morrison Rubin, class of 1937. The scholarship is awarded to one or more law students based on financial need.

Frank H. and Ruth Shapiro Scholarship

This scholarship was endowed in 1991 by Frank H. Shapiro, a graduate of the School of Law, class of 1932, and his wife, Ruth. Mr. Shapiro was awarded the Alumnus of the Year Award in 1983 and has been active for many years in the School of Law Alumni/ae Association. The scholarship is awarded annually to one or more students based on financial need.

Arthur Siegal Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1980 by Arthur Siegal, a graduate of the School of Law, class of 1940. The income from this fund is awarded annually based on financial need.

Marion K. Terry Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1994 by a bequest from Marion K. Terry, class of 1928. The scholarship is awarded annually, at the discretion of the director of admissions, to a first-year student, preferably female, based on financial need.

Philip E. Tesorero Scholarship

This scholarship was established in honor of Philip E. Tesorero, a 1929 graduate of the School of Law. Income from this fund is awarded to students who demonstrate both superior academic achievement and financial need.

Townsend Patent Law Fund

was established in 1998. It was created to promote the study of patent law by technically qualified law students. The award is given annually to a student(s) who, at any time prior to graduation from law school, successfully completes all requirements to practice before the U.S. Patent Office and holds a graduate degree in science or engineering.

William D. Vogel Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship honors the memory of William D. Vogel, a 1971 graduate of the law school. It was established in 1988 by classmates and friends who fondly remember him. The scholarship is awarded annually to one or more law students based on financial need.

Udell Redmond White Scholarship

This scholarship was established by Udell Redmond White, a 1939 graduate of the School of Law who received her L.L.M. in 1942. The scholarship is awarded annually to one or more students based on financial need.

Melvin R. Wintman Scholarship

This scholarship was established by Melvin R. Wintman, class of 1940. Mr. Wintman is a director of The National Council. The scholarship is awarded to second- or third-year students based on financial need.

Helen C. Woodman Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1994 with distributions from the Helen Woodman Charitable Trust in honor and memory of Stuart Meade Wright, former professor and dean of the School of Law, and in memory of Helen Woodman. The scholarship is awarded annually to a law student based on financial need.