ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Northeastern University School of Law Jul 2022–Present
Associate Clinical Professor and Director of Community Business Clinic

Community Business Clinic

The Community Business Clinic provides second and third-year law students with client representation and professional development experiences by counseling returning citizens, local small business owners, community entrepreneurs, and nonprofit organizations on transactional legal matters.

- Teach and supervise 8 students per semester on client matters through seminar class, weekly team meetings, and office hours.
- Refocus clinic’s geographic scope to serve clients in the neighborhoods surrounding the law school

Boston University School of Law Jul 2021–Jun 2022
Visiting Clinical Assistant Professor

Startup Law Clinic

The Startup Law Clinic prepares second and third-year law students for the transactional business and intellectual property law practices through representation of MIT and BU student entrepreneur ventures. Students learn substantive legal practice and soft skills like proper interviewing techniques and client counseling.

- Co- clinical seminar class of 20 students, specifically lecturing on corporate formation, founder’s equity, nonprofit organization, and trademarks.
- Directly supervise 6 students on client matters using round robin team format and 1-on-1 meetings.

The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law Jul 2019–Jun 2021
Jeff & Cynthia Harris Fellow

Entrepreneurial Business Law Clinic

The Entrepreneurial Business Law Clinic offers third-year law students the opportunity to represent local startup and nonprofit clients in transactional matters. Students develop the practical skills, professionalism, and confidence necessary to be successful early in their careers.

- Co-taught clinical seminar class of 16 students, specifically lecturing on client counseling, intellectual property (trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets), and nonprofit organizations.
- Directly supervised 8 students per semester on client matters through weekly team meetings; supervise additional students on specific IP and nonprofit matters as needed.
- Established clinic’s intellectual property counseling practice to guide students through advising clients on trademark and copyright registration, trade secret protection, and IP assignment.

Wake Forest University School of Law Aug 2018–Jul 2019
Clinical and Dean’s Fellow

Community Law & Business Clinic

The Community Law & Business Clinic provides law students with an opportunity to develop the skills necessary to practice in an increasingly complex legal and regulatory environment by offering transactional legal assistance to small businesses, entrepreneurs, and nonprofit organizations.

- Supervised 7 students in the fall semester and 10 students in the spring semester through individual meetings and team discussions.
- Lectured on trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets, and employment law topics.
- Expanded nonprofit offerings by developing governance and employment practices check-ups for “mid-life” nonprofit organizations.
- Enhanced the efficiency of clinic’s trademark practice by leading the development of a tracking system for trademark applications and maintenance.
