BAD SPANIELS:

Trademark Parody and Fair Use Doctrines

THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 2023 • 4 PM • 250 DOCKSER HALL

Is a squeaky dog toy that pokes fun at a famous brand subject to trademark infringement's traditional likelihood of confusion analysis?

Can a commercial product also be an expressive work that merits First Amendment protection?

How should courts apply federal antidilution law in cases where a use involves speech?

Join Professor Rebecca Tushnet of Harvard Law School and Professor Alexandra Roberts of Northeastern Law for a conversation about trademark parody and fair use doctrines with a focus on Jack Daniels v. VIP Products, which is currently pending before the US Supreme Court.
