

REINING IN BIG TECH:

Antitrust Law at a Crossroads

THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 2024 • 3:00–4:30 PM • 250 DOCKSER

Northeastern Law's Center for Law, Information and Creativity (CLIC) invites you to a timely discussion of how tech platform markets dominated by companies such as Alphabet, Amazon, Meta and a few more are being remade through antitrust law, and how antitrust is (or isn't) changing to address emerging economic challenges.

NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY SPEAKERS

ELETTRA BIETTI

Assistant
Professor of Law

JOHN KWOKA

Finnegan Distinguished
Professor of Economics;
Recent Chief Economist
to the Chair, Federal Trade Commission

GARY COOPER

Adjunct
Professor of Law

MODERATOR

DAVID SIMON

Associate Professor of Law, Northeastern University School of Law

Tea, coffee and snacks will be provided.

law.northeastern.edu/reining-in-big-tech

N Northeastern University School of Law
Center for Law, Information and Creativity