

PUBLIC MEMORIALIZATION IN THE U.S.

April 2, 2024, 11:10-1:10 p.m.

230 Dockser Hall

Join the Civil Rights and Restorative Justice Project for a discussion on public memorialization in the U.S. with Attorney James Williams.

Truth Commissions, Monuments and Commemoration

Williams, former Chief Public Defender for Orange and Chatham counties in North Carolina, and current Racial Equity Coordinator at The Center for Death Penalty Litigation, has led the Booker Spicely Committee, which seeks memorialization for a soldier killed in Jim Crow North Carolina in 1944, and restorative justice for surviving family members.

